
BIG LAKE CHARTER

Posted by Jason Kik - 2006/10/08 00:07

I went out for a charter with my brother again today. We went out of Muskegon. After a boat ride out to 250 ft of water, we watched a gorgeous sunrise. The fish turned on around 9:30am. We ended up with 12 in the boat. All salmon except 1 nice steelhead and 1 lake trout (out of season) we had to throw back.

we had 8 other fish that either didnt get hooked well or just got away. We had a great day.

The waves were 2-4 feet high and I am still woozy while I type this message. NO, not from the beer.
